Early morning departure from Durban and travel approximately 3 hours to the Hluhluwe-Umfolozi Game Reserve. Spend the day searching for the Big Five and various other game species. Stop for lunch (OWN ACCOUNT). Depart the park by 15h30 to return to Durban in the late afternoon. Optional open safari vehicle game drive is available at a surcharge.

Visit Hluhluwe-Umfolozi Game Park for the morning and then drive to St Lucia in the iSimangaliso Wetlands for a 2 hour boat cruise down the world’s largest estuary viewing hippo and crocodile in their natural habitat. Optional open safari vehicle game drive is available at a surcharge.

Our next stop will be the Inanda Heritage Sites of Mahatma Gandhi’s Phoenix settlement, John Dube’s Ohlange Institute the Shembe Church and the Inanda Seminary School.

Depart Durban westwards into the bushveld for a drive at a Private Game Reserve that boasts wildlife such as Rhino, Giraffe, Zebra, Wildebeest, Hippo and a wide variety of antelope. This is followed by lunch. We then depart for the valley of 1000 hills, for a visit to the Asegaal Safari Park, for a guided tour of the crocodile enclosures, and the snake collection. We then visit “Phe-Zulu”。 A traditional Zulu village, for a cultural show, encompassing tribal songs and dances to the rhythm of drums and a tour of the village.

After a scenic drive through Zululand to St Lucia we head to the estuary mouth as our first stop. A short hike through the game park you may encounter various wildlife and birdlife. After lunch, relax on a boat ride to view crocs, hippos and the many more species of birds.

For the best of Zulu Culture, Shakaland is a must. We drive north through sugar cane plantations and various historical landmarks to our destination “Shakaland”. Thrill to the rhythm of the drums as the Zulu’s give you an amazing demonstration of traditional dances.

You will learn about the delicate balance of 5 eco-systems in the area, and many facts about the large and small inhabitants of these regions, before our late afternoon drive back to Durban.

We will travel along a scenic route to the valley of a thousand hills and you will be guided through the Crocodile farm where you will see one of the largest crocodiles in Kwa Zulu Natal, and a full range of snakes which are indigenous to the area.
